

THE SMARTEST TECHNOLOGY INVESTMENT IS ALWAYS SMART PEOPLE.

Throughout the region and across the globe, businesses are tapping into the Office of Industry and Government Partnerships at UNC Charlotte. Our vast resources combine with interdisciplinary expertise to create a talent pipeline for Fortune 500 companies and local startups. In fact, each year Bank of America enlists a number of UNC Charlotte's finest students to participate in its Applied Technology Internship program. To create a similar partnership that provides exceptional research and technology talent for your company, the Office of Industry and Government Partnerships is your gateway to industry-university collaboration. Discover more at partnerships.uncc.edu
